I, Kevin Mathewson appearing pro-se specially and with the sole purpose of informing this court that it should dismiss the above captioned case as the 90-day window of service has passed and this defendant has not been served. Upon information and belief no defendants have been served. This complaint is a work of fiction and reads more like a partisan press release than a lawsuit. The two attorneys that filed this action have both accused the other of professional misconduct and have acted like activists and not lawyers. I am surprised that lawyers are allowed to publish complaints before such a prestigious court without anything that could be accidentally be confused with the truth. This is not Attorney Williams-Flores' first time attempting to make a joke out of the judicial system.

Respectfully submitted,

Kevin Mathewson
